You have the right to ask us to amend or correct your clinical record if there is something with which you do not agree. Please remember, though, your clinical records can only be changed as allowed by applicable law. Generally, information about you can only be given to others with your permission. However, there are times when your information is shared in order to coordinate your treatment or when it is required by law.

Family members have the right to provide information to OCHN about you. However, without a Release of Information signed by you, OCHN may not give information about you to a family member. For minor children under the age of 18 years, parents/ guardians are provided information about their child and must sign a “Release of Information” before information can be shared.

If you feel your confidentiality rights have been violated, call Recipient Rights at 877-744-4878.

Coordination of Care

To improve service quality, OCHN wants to coordinate your physical and mental health. You will be asked to provide written permission for the person you would like to be your authorized representative. You can submit this information to OCHN in any way or manner most convenient for you such as by fax, postal mail, text message, or by an e-mail. Your service provider may file a Grievance or request a State Fair Hearing (after the resolution of the Local Appeal) on your behalf because the State of Michigan permits a provider to act as the beneficiary's authorized representative. Punitive action may not be taken by OCHN against a provider who acts on your behalf when they have your written consent to do so.

You, your guardian, your legal representative or a parent of a minor child can file a grievance any time by calling, visiting, or writing to Customer Services. In most cases, your grievance will be resolved within 90 calendar days from the date the PIHP receives your grievance. You will be given detailed information about the grievance and appeal process When you first start services and then again annually. In all cases, the PIHP may extend the time for resolving your Grievance by 14 calendar days if you request an extension, or if the PIHP can show that additional information is needed, and a delay is in your best interest. You may ask for this information at any time by contacting Customer Services at 800-341-2003. If your grievance is not resolved within 90 calendar days, you or your representative can request a State Medicaid Fair Hearing.

Appeals

You will be notified when a decision is made denying your request for services or reduces, suspends, or terminates services you already receive. This notice is called an "Adverse Benefit Determination." You have the right to file an "appeal" when you don't agree with a decision. If you want to ask for an appeal, orally or in writing, it has to be done within 60 calendar days from the date of the Adverse Benefit Determination.

You may ask for a Local Appeal by:

1. File a Local Appeal by completing the Local Appeal Request Form that you received with your Due Process Notice/Letter.
2. File a Local Appeal electronically/online:

- Go to www.oaklandchn.org, select the Recipient Rights tab at the top of the page
 - Select the “Local Appeals Form” link
 - Answer all form questions and the hit submit. You will then receive a confirmation e-mail that your appeal has been received.
3. Ask for assistance with filing a “Local Appeal” by contacting Customer Services at 800-341-2003. You will have the chance to provide information in support of your appeal, and to have someone speak for you regarding the appeal if you would like. In most cases, your appeal will be completed in 30 calendar days or less. If you request and meet the requirements for an “expedited appeal” (fast appeal), your appeal will be decided within 72 hours after we receive your request. OCHN will provide you written notice of the Local Appeal Expedited Resolution, and will also make reasonable efforts to provide oral notice. If the request for the Local Expedited Appeal is denied, OCHN will try to give you prompt oral notices, and will follow-up with written notice within 2 calendar days. At this time, the appeal transfers to the standard time frame, 30 calendar days. You have the right to file a Grievance if you disagree.

In all cases, the PIHP may extend the time for resolving your appeal by 14 calendar days if you request an extension, or if the PIHP can show that additional information is needed and a delay is in your best interest. If OCHN needs to extend the time frame of the Local Appeal, written notice will be provided of the reason within 2 calendar days. If you disagree with the decision, you have the right to file a Grievance.

State Fair Hearing

You can ask for a state fair hearing only after receiving notice that the adverse benefit determination has been upheld. You can also ask for a state fair hearing if you were not provided your notice and decision regarding your appeal in the time frame required. There are time limits on when you can file an appeal once you receive a decision about your local appeal. The Enrollee has 120 calendar days from the date of the applicable notice of resolution to file for a State Fair Hearing.

Language Assistance and Accommodations

Language Assistance: If you are a person who is deaf or hard of hearing, you can utilize the Michigan Relay Center (MRC) to reach your PIHP, CMHSP or service provider. Please call 7-1-1 and ask MRC to connect you to the number you are trying to reach. Also, a Public Video Phone is available at the OCHN building.

If you need a sign language interpreter, contact Customer Services at 800-341-2003 as soon as possible and one will be made available. Sign language interpreters are available at no cost to you. If you do not speak English, contact Customer Services at 800-341-2003 so that arrangements can be made for an interpreter. Language interpreters are available at no cost to you.

All OCHN service provider agencies must inform and provide you with an interpreter if you request one, at no cost to you. Some written materials are available in Spanish, Arabic, or large print. For print materials not available in your language, OCHN or the agency where you are receiving services and supports will provide you an interpreter to read you the material, at no cost to you.

Accessibility and Accommodations: In accordance with federal and state laws, all buildings and programs of OCHN are required to be physically accessible to individuals with all qualifying disabilities. Any individual who receives emotional, visual, or mobility support from a qualified/trained and identified service animal such as a dog will be given access, along with the service animal, to all OCHN buildings and programs. If you need more information or if you have questions about accessibility or service/support animals, contact Customer Services at 800-341-2003.

You will be told how to request an accommodation (this can be done over the phone, in person and/or in writing), and you will be told who at the agency is responsible for handling accommodation requests.

Important Safety Information

Smoking is prohibited within the Oakland Community Health Network administration building. You will find ashtrays on the outside of the building in designated smoking areas. After you have started working with your service provider, you will be given information about the provider's safety precautions, procedures, and other specific guidelines pertaining to that service site. For the health and safety of the people served, OCHN's administration building and each service provider site has evacuation maps, fire extinguishers, and first aid kits.

If you have any questions about safety issues or procedures, please ask the staff person working with you or contact OCHN's Customer Services. In the event of a drill or actual emergency situation, everyone is expected to cooperate with the directions that are given by authorized staff members and emergency workers.

Payment for Services

If you are enrolled in Medicaid and meet the criteria for the specialty behavioral health and substance use services, the total cost of your authorized behavioral health treatment will be covered. No fees will be charged to you and no claims need to be submitted. Individuals served in the OCHN network are eligible for Medicaid and do not have a limit on benefits, therefore are not discharged or transferred due to benefits being exhausted.

Some people will be responsible for “Cost Sharing.” This refers to money that a member has to pay when services or drugs are received. You might also hear terms like “deductible, spend-down, copayment, or coinsurance,” which are all forms of “cost sharing.” Your Medicaid benefit level will determine if you will have to pay any cost-sharing responsibilities. If you are a Medicaid beneficiary with a deductible (spend-down) as determined by MDHHS, you may be responsible for the cost of a portion of your services.

Should you lose your Medicaid coverage, your PIHP/provider may need to re-evaluate your eligibility for services. A different set of criteria may be applied to services that are covered by another funding source, such as General Fund, Block Grant, or a third party payer. If Medicare is your primary payer, the PIHP will cover all Medicare cost-sharing consistent with coordination of benefit rules.

Person-Centered Planning

The process used to design your individual plan of behavioral health supports, service, or treatment is called “Person-Centered Planning” (PCP). PCP is your right and protected by the Michigan Mental Health Code. The process begins when you determine whom, beside yourself, you want to attend your Person-Centered Planning meetings, such as family members or friends and what staff from your provider agency. You will also decide when and where the Person-Centered Planning meetings are held. Finally, you will decide what assistance you might need to help you participate in and understand the meetings. During Person-Centered Planning you will be asked what are your hopes and dreams, as well as receive assistance to develop goals or outcomes that you want to achieve. The people attending this meeting will help you decide what supports, services, or treatment you need, who you want to provide this service, how often you need the service, and where it will be provided. You have the right under federal and state laws to a choice of providers.

After you begin receiving services, you will be asked from time to time how you feel about the supports, services, or treatment you are receiving and whether changes need to be made. You have the right to ask at any time for a new Person-Centered Planning meeting if you want to talk about changing your plan of service.

You have the right to “independent facilitation” of the Person-Centered Planning process. This means that you may request that someone other than OCHN’s core provider agency’s staff conduct your planning meetings. You have the right to choose from available independent facilitators.

Children under the age of 18 with developmental disabilities or serious emotional disturbance also have the right to Person-Centered Planning. However, Person-Centered Planning must recognize the importance of the family and the fact that supports and services impact the entire family. The parent(s) or guardian(s) of the children will be involved in pre-planning and Person-Centered Planning using “Family-Centered Practice” in the delivery of supports, services, and treatment to their children.

Topics Covered during Person-Centered Planning

During Person-Centered Planning, you will be informed about psychiatric advance directives, crisis planning, and self-determination (see the descriptions below). You have the right to choose to develop any, all or none of these.

Psychiatric Advance Directive: Adults have the right, under Michigan law, to a “psychiatric advance directive.” A psychiatric advance directive is a tool for making decisions before a crisis in which you may become unable to make a decision about the kind of treatment you want and the kind of treatment you do not want. This lets other people, including family, friends, and service providers, know what you want when you cannot speak for yourself.

If you do not believe you have received appropriate information regarding Psychiatric Advance Directives from your PIHP, please contact the Customer Services office to file a grievance.

Crisis Plan: You also have the right to develop a “crisis plan.” A crisis plan is intended to give direct care if you begin to have problems in managing your life or you become unable to make decisions and care for yourself. The crisis plan would give information and direction to others about what you would like done in the time of crisis. Examples are friends or relatives to be called, preferred medicines, or care of children, pets, or bills.

Self - Determination: Self-determination is an option for payment of medically necessary services you might request if you are an adult beneficiary receiving behavioral health services in Michigan. It is a process that would help you to design and exercise control over your own life by directing a fixed amount of dollars that will be spent on your authorized supports and services, often referred to as an “individual budget.” You would also be supported in your management of providers, if you choose such control.

Advance Directive

One important area in which people exercise independence is in choosing mental and other health treatments they receive. Unfortunately, due to illness, people may become unable to make informed choices about their care. Although it is difficult to confront these issues, by doing so you can help ensure your future wishes are honored. The decision whether to have an Advance Directive is up to you. Once you determine your wishes, the next step is relatively simple and inexpensive or free, and can be part of your Person-Centered Planning process.

What is an Advance Directive?

A written, legal document that allows individuals to specify their wishes for psychiatric treatment or other treatment if they are unable to do so. Michigan Law and Public Act 2004, 532 along with 42 CFR 422.18- “Information on Advance Directives” supports:

- The designation of a health care advocate to represent an individual should he/she be unable to make their wishes known.
- A plan now for a time in the future when you may be unable to advocate or plan for yourself.
- The right to make health care decisions must be returned to a person as soon as their ability to make such decisions has returned.

Professionals and workers must listen to the choices you have outlined in your Advance Directive document.

How does an Advance Directive relate to your treatment?

If you prefer, your case manager or clinician will assist you in connecting to a resource to help develop your Advance Directive. With your permission, your Advance Directive can be copied and made available to your case manager. Your case manager will help you distribute your Advance Directive document to all caregivers and health care professionals identified in your document and within the surrounding agencies. The provision of treatment, care and services is not dependent on or determined by whether or not a person has an executed advance directive.

Who can assist you in developing your Advance Directive?

- Ask any Core Provider Agency for more information about Advance Directives
- Michigan Protection and Advocacy Services, Inc. at 800-288-5923.
- OCHN Customer Services toll-free at 800-341-2003.

Recipient Rights

Every person who receives public behavioral health services has certain rights protected by the Michigan Mental Health Code and the Code of Federal Regulations. Some of your rights include:

- The right to be free from abuse and neglect
- The right to confidentiality
- The right to be treated with dignity and respect
- The right to treatment suited to condition
- The right to be free from any form of restraint or seclusion used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience or retaliation
- The right to participate in decisions about health care, including the right to refuse treatment

More information about your many rights is contained in the booklet titled “Your Rights.” You will be given this booklet and have your rights explained to you when you first start receiving services, and then once again every year. You can also ask for this booklet at any time.

You may file a Recipient Rights complaint at any time if you think staff violated your rights. Rights complaints can be submitted in writing or orally.

If you receive substance use services, you have rights protected by the Public Health Code. These rights will also be explained to you when you start receiving services and then once again every year. You can find more information about your rights while getting substance use services in the “Know Your Rights” pamphlet.

You may contact your local community behavioral health services program to talk with a Recipient Rights Officer about your questions or to get help to make a complaint. Customer Services can also help you make a complaint. You can contact:

Office of Recipient Rights at 877-744-4878 or Customer Services at 800-341-2003

Freedom from Retaliation

If you use public behavioral health or substance use services, you are free to exercise your rights, and to use the rights protection system without fear of retaliation, harassment, or discrimination. Under no circumstances will the public behavioral health system use seclusion or restraint as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience or retaliation.

Recovery & Resiliency

Recovery is a journey of healing and transformation enabling a person with a mental health/substance abuse problem to live a meaningful life in a community of his or her choice while striving to achieve his or her potential.

Recovery is an individual journey that follows different paths and leads to different locations. Recovery is a process that we enter into and is a lifelong attitude. Recovery is unique to each individual and can truly only be defined by the individual themselves. What might be recovery for one person may be only part of the process for another.

Recovery may also be defined as wellness. Behavioral health supports and services help people with a mental illness/substance use disorder in their recovery journeys. The person-centered planning process is used to identify the supports needed for individual recovery.

In recovery there may be relapses. A relapse is not a failure, rather a challenge. If a relapse is prepared for, and the tools and skills that have been learned throughout the recovery journey are used, a person can overcome and come out a stronger individual. It takes time, and that is why

Recovery is a process that will lead to a future that holds days of pleasure and the energy to persevere through the trials of life.

Resiliency and development are the guiding principles for children with serious emotional disturbance. Resiliency is the ability to “bounce back” and is a characteristic important to nurture in children with serious emotional disturbance and their families. It refers to an individual’s ability to become successful despite challenges they may face throughout their life.

Mental Health Medicaid Specialty Supports and Services Descriptions

Note: If you are a Medicaid beneficiary and have a serious mental illness, or serious emotional disturbance, or developmental disabilities, or substance use disorder, you may be eligible for some of the Medicaid Specialty Supports and Services listed. Additional service information, including how to refer yourself or a loved one, can be found on OCHN’s website at www.oaklandchn.org.

Before services can be started, you will take part in an assessment to find out if you are eligible for services. It will also identify the services that can best meet your needs. You need to know that not all people who come to OCHN are eligible, and not all services are available to everyone we serve. If a service cannot help you, your Community Mental Health will not pay for it. Medicaid will not pay for services otherwise available from other community resources.

During the Person-Centered Planning process you will receive help determining your medically necessary services and the sufficient amount, scope, and duration required to achieve the purpose of those services. You be able to choose who provides your supports and services, and receive an individual plan of service. In addition to meeting medically necessary criteria, services listed below marked with an asterisk (*) require a doctor’s prescription.

Note: The Michigan Medicaid Provider Manual contains complete definitions of the following services as well as eligibility criteria and provider qualifications. The manual can be accessed at mdch.state.mi.us/dch-medicaid/manuals/MedicaidProviderManual.pdf Customer Service staff can help you access the manual and/or information from it.

Assertive Community Treatment (ACT) provides basic services and supports essential for people with serious mental illness to maintain independence in the community. An ACT team will provide behavioral health therapy and help with medications. The team also helps access community resources and supports needed to maintain wellness and participate in social, educational, and vocational activities. An ACT team provides integrated treatment for persons with co-occurring mental health illness and substance use disorders. ACT services may be provided daily for individuals who participate.

Assessment includes a comprehensive psychiatric evaluation, psychological testing, substance use screening, or other assessments conducted to determine a person's level of functioning and behavioral health treatment needs. Physical health assessments are not part of this PIHP service.

Assistive Technology includes adaptive devices and supplies that are not covered under the Medicaid Health Plan or by other community resources. These devices help individuals to better take care of themselves, or to better interact in the places where they live, work, and play.

Behavior Treatment Review is provided if a person's illness or disability involves behaviors that he/she or others who work with them want to change. Their individual plan of services may include a plan that talks about the behavior. This plan is often called a "behavior treatment plan." The plan is developed during Person-Centered Planning and is regularly approved and reviewed by a team of specialists to ensure that it is effective, dignified, and continues to meet the person's needs.

Behavior Treatment Services/Applied Behavior Analysis are services for children under 21 years of age with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD).

Clubhouse Programs are programs where members (people receiving services) and staff work side by side to operate the clubhouse and to encourage participation in the greater community. Clubhouse programs focus on fostering recovery, competency, and social supports, as well as employment skills and opportunities.

Community Inpatient Services are hospital services used to stabilize a behavioral health condition in the event of a significant change in symptoms or behavioral health emergency. Community hospital services are provided in licensed psychiatric hospitals and in licensed psychiatric units of hospitals.

Community Living Supports may also help families who have children with special needs (such as developmental disabilities or serious emotional disturbance).

Complex Case Management (CCM) is a complementary service provided by OCHN. The goal of the program is to improve care coordination between individuals, their healthcare providers, and other supports. It is specifically used to help individuals with physical and behavioral health conditions who are enrolled with a Medicaid Health Plan. These people may have a high risk for hospitalization and/or healthcare complications. CCM does not replace services and supports provided by the OCHN provider network. Visit www.oaklandchn.org for more information on CCM services.

Crisis Intervention are unscheduled individual or group services aimed at reducing or eliminating the impact of unexpected events on behavioral health and well-being.

Crisis Residential Services are short-term alternatives to inpatient hospitalization provided in a licensed residential setting.

Early Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment (EPSDT) provides a comprehensive array of prevention, diagnostic, and treatment services for low-income infants, children, and adolescents under the age of 21 years, as specified in Section 1905(a)(4)(B) of the Social Security Act (the Act) and defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(5)(5) and 42 CFR 441.50 or its successive regulation.

The EPSDT benefit is more robust than the Medicaid benefit for adults and is designed to assure that children receive early detection and care, so that health problems are averted or diagnosed and treated as early as possible. Health plans are required to comply with all EPSDT requirements for their Medicaid enrollees under the age of 21 years. EPSDT entitles Medicaid and Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) enrollees under the age of 21 years to any treatment or procedure that fits within any of the categories of Medicaid-coverage services listed in Section 1905(a) of the Act if that treatment or service is necessary to "correct or ameliorate" defects and physical and mental illnesses or conditions.

This requirement results in a comprehensive health benefit for children under age 21 years enrolled in Medicaid in addition to the covered services listed above. Medicaid must provide any other medical or remedial care, even if the agency does not otherwise provide for these services or provides for them in a lesser amount duration or scope (42 CFR 441.57).

Enhanced Pharmacy includes doctor-ordered, nonprescription or over-the-counter items (such as vitamins or cough syrup) necessary to manage health condition(s) when these items are not covered by a person's Medicaid Health Plan.

Environmental Modifications are physical changes to a person's home, car, or work environment that are of direct medical or remedial benefit to the person. Modifications ensure access, protect health and safety, or enable greater independence for a person with physical disabilities. Note that other sources of funding must be explored first, before using Medicaid funds for environmental modifications.

Treatment Planning assists a person and those of his/her choosing in the development and periodic review of the individual plan of services.

Wraparound Services for Children and Adolescents with serious emotional disturbance and their families that include treatment and supports necessary to maintain the child in the family home.

Services for Habilitation Supports Waiver (HSW) and Children's Waiver Participants Only

Some Medicaid beneficiaries are eligible for special services that help to avoid going to an institution for people with developmental disabilities or nursing home. These special services are called the Habilitation Supports Waiver and the Children's Waiver. To receive these services, people with developmental disabilities need to be enrolled in either of these "waivers." The availability of these waivers is very limited. People enrolled in the waivers have access to the previous services listed above as well as following:

- Goods and Services (for HSW enrollees) is a non-staff service that replaces the assistance that staff would be hired to provide.
- Non-Family Training (for Children's Waiver enrollees) is customized training for paid, in-home support staff who provide care for a child enrolled in the Waiver.
- Out-of-home Non-Vocational Supports and Services (for HSW enrollees) is assistance to gain, retain, or improve in self-help, socialization, or adaptive skills.

Personal Emergency Response devices (for HSW enrollees) help a person maintain independence and safety, in his/her own home or in a community setting. These devices are used to call for help in an emergency.

Pre-vocational Services (for HSW enrollees) include supports, services and training to prepare a person for paid employment or community volunteer work.

Private Duty Nursing (for HSW enrollees) is an individualized nursing service provided in the home, as necessary to meet specialized health needs.

Specialty Services (for Children's Waiver enrollees) are music, recreation, art, or massage therapies that may be provided to help reduce or manage the symptoms of a child's mental health condition or intellectual / developmental disability. Specialty services might also include specialized child and family training, coaching, staff supervision, or monitoring of program goals.

For more information on waiver services, included HSW, CWP, State Plan Amendment (iSPA), and SEDW, please see the accompanying waiver services handout.

If you have Medicaid, you may be entitled to other medical services not listed above. Services necessary to maintain your physical health are provided or ordered by your primary care doctor. Service Authorization

Services you request must be authorized or approved by OCHN or its designee. That agency may approve all, some or none of your requests. You will receive notice of a decision within 14 calendar days after you have requested the service during Person Centered Planning, or within 72 hours if the request requires a quick decision.

Any decision that denies a service you request, or denies the amount, scope, or duration of the service that you request will be made by a health care professional who has appropriate clinical expertise in treating your condition. Authorizations are made according to medical necessity. If you do not agree with a decision that denies, reduces, suspends, or terminates a service, you may file an appeal. All services provided through the public mental health system must be approved through OCHN's Utilization Management process.

Emergency Services: No prior authorization or 'approval' is necessary before you contact any OCHN staff or contract provider in the network to ask for help in an emergency.

An "emergency" occurs when you might have a thought or feeling that you cannot control on your own, which could put you and your health at risk if you do not get help right away. In case of an emergency, contact 911 at any time, call Common Ground toll free at 800-231-1127, or go to the nearest hospital emergency room.

Please Note: If you utilize a hospital emergency room, there may be healthcare services provided to you as part of the hospital treatment that you receive for which you may receive a bill and may be responsible for paying depending on your insurance status. These services may not be part of your PIHP emergency services Customer Services can answer questions about such bills.

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse

Fraud, waste and abuse uses up valuable Michigan Medicaid funds needed to help children and adults access health care. Everyone can take responsibility by reporting fraud and abuse. Together we can ensure taxpayer money is used for people who need help.

Examples of Medicaid Fraud:

- Billing for medical services not actually performed
- Providing unnecessary services
- Billing for more expensive services
- Billing for services separately that should legitimately be one billing
- Billing more than once for the same medical service

- Dispensing generic drugs, but billing for brand-named drugs
- Giving or accepting something of value (cash, gifts, services) for medical services (i.e. kickbacks)
- Falsifying cost reports

Or When Someone:

- Lies about their eligibility
- Lies about their medical condition
- Forges prescriptions
- Sells their prescription drugs to others
- Loans their Medicaid card to others

Or When a Health Care Provider Falsely Charges for:

- Missed appointments
- Unnecessary medical tests
- Telephone services

If you think someone is committing fraud, waste, or abuse, you may report it to Corporate Compliance. You may e-mail concerns to (e-mail) or report them anonymously on OCHN's website at www.oaklandchn.org and select the "Contact Us" link.

Your report will be confidential, and you may not be retaliated against. You may also report concerns about fraud, waste, and abuse directly to Michigan's Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Online: www.michigan.gov/fraud

Call: 855-MI-FRAUD (643-7286) (voice mail is available after hours)

Send a Letter: Office of Inspector General, PO Box 30062, Lansing, MI 48909

When you make a complaint, make sure to include as much information as you can, including details about what happened, who was involved (including their address and phone number) Medicaid identification number, date of birth (for beneficiaries), and other identifying information you have.
